FAQs

How can I find when the space is available?

Please check our availability by giving us a call or emailing us at info@myfordfarms.com to schedule the date.

Can I take a tour of the barn?

Yes, please email us at info@myfordfarms.com to schedule a tour by appointment only.

When is the deposit due for my date?

The deposit is due immediately to reserve your date. Without a deposit, your date is not reserved. Deposits vary; please talk with Holly Ford regarding your deposit amount.

When is the remainder of my bill due?

1 week prior to your event.

What is included in my rental cost?

The Barn, back area behind the barn, tables and chairs for 50 people (9 tables, 50 chairs), bar area, lighting inside and outside, no food or alcohol restrictions (with the exclusion of alcohol insurance), restroom, power, and parking.

Where can I get event insurance if I am serving alcohol?

One website we have had great success with is: www.eventhelper.com but there is always an option to get the insurance through your private insurance provider. The cost ranges from $30-$150.

When can I setup?

Your setup depends on events happening that day or the day before. There will be a staff member to help with setup of tables, chairs, and décor if needed. Be sure to ask Holly Ford specific time availability when setting up for your event.

What are the provisions when decorating?

We are very flexible in what you can do for decorating. When meeting with Holly be sure to ask specific questions regarding décor.

Where are the outlets?

There are outlets in the barn, and near the bar area inside.

What do I do with the garbage when my event is over?

Be sure to put all garbage in the garbage cans and we will dispose of it from there.

What is the time limit?

For a Wedding- there is no time limit

Parties & other events have use of our venue for up to 6 hours.

What are the food requirements?

We are an open venue- so you are free to hire any catering service or just BBQ yourself!

Is security required? No, but a Ford Farms staff member is required to be on site for all weddings.

Is a bartender required? No

We have different options at an additional cost that you can choose from for you event.
